"We have travelled with Mr. Anderson, through the whole of his volume, with great satisfaction, and we do not hesitate to recommend the same pleasure to others. He may, perhaps, by some, be thought too minute in his descriptions; but in an unknown country, which China may in a great degree be considered, every circumstance is important; and in such a work as this, where there will necessarily be an occasional dearth of great objects, or, at least, where such objects want that bold variety which can be communicated to the page, trifles become interesting, and aid the general effect of the narration."—Europ. Mag. May, 1795.

Monthly Review for Nov. 1794.

Books printed for J. Debrett.

This Day is Published,

Containing a very full and exact account of the Debates to the last adjournment for the Christmas holidays, taken from manuscript notes and other authentic papers; with the assistance and concurrence of many persons of the first character and distinction; and will be regularly continued weekly, during the Session,

THE PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER; or, the History of the Proceedings and Debates of both HOUSES of PARLIAMENT; containing an Account of the most interesting Speeches and Motions, authentic Copies of all important Letters and Papers laid before either House during the PRESENT SESSION.

* * The Editors flatter themselves that these Debates, which they have the honour to present to the Public, will fully prove the earnest desire they entertain to act up to the very distinguished Patronage they have so long experienced. They hazard little in the opinion, that the question involved in them, is of the first interest and importance; and, it is presumed, they will not hazard less, in expressing their most sanguine hopes, that from the Copiousness of Detail, the Fidelity of Argument, and the Accuracy of Expression, with which they are given, they will afford a very superior gratification to the Public Mind.

The PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER of the First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Sessions of the PRESENT PARLIAMENT; in 15 large volumes, 8vo. Price 7l. 7s. half bound and lettered.

The PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER, from the General Election in 1780, to the Dissolution of Parliament in 1784, in fourteen volumes. Price 5l. 5s. half bound and lettered.

The PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER, from the General Election in 1784, to the Dissolution of Parliament in 1790, in thirteen volumes. Price 6l. 12s. half bound and lettered.

The DEBATES and PROCEEDINGS of BOTH HOUSES of PARLIAMENT, from the year 1743, to the year 1774. Printed uniformly to bind with the Parliamentary Register. In seven large volumes, 8vo. Price 2l. 9s. in boards.

* * The several fugitive Publications of the Proceedings of Parliament, during this long and interesting Period, have been assiduously collected, and carefully collated with the Journals. Of the Commons, there has been only one imperfect Collection published, which is become very scarce; and of the LORDS, there has been no Publication whatever, except a few detached Papers. This Work is intended to fill up an important Chasm in the PARLIAMENTARY HISTORY of Great Britain—Chandler's Collection of Debates ends in the Year 1743, and the PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER commences in the Year 1774. During this Interval, there is no Account of the Proceedings of Parliament that can be relied upon.

In the Debates of this period are many important motions, arising from a variety of interesting events, both domestic and foreign. Several material changes in the Administration were the consequence of these Debates. As the attention of Parliament was occasionally employed upon two long and expensive wars with France and Spain, and the suppression of an intestine rebellion, a moment's reflection will shew this to have been one of the most important periods in our history.

Preparing for the Press, in SIXTEEN VOLUMES,

Price Six Guineas, half bound and lettered, a new Edition, with considerable Additions, of The PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER,

From the General Election in 1774, to the Dissolution of Parliament in 1780; revised and collated with the Notes of several Members, and with the Journals of Parliament.

§§§ Those Noblemen and Gentlemen who may be pleased to patronise this Collection, are respectfully intreated to transmit their Names to J. DEBRETT, or to their respective Booksellers.—No Money will be received till the Delivery of the Work, which will be immediately put to Press on the Receipt of 250 Subscribers.
